

The Top Ten Reasons to Join the Cleveland Park Email List

www.cleveland-park.com

10. It's an A-List that doesn't require you to be a major donor to any political party.
9. You'll find out about new restaurants, secret parking places, neighborhood events, street construction, crime, and other activities that affect your life.
8. You'll know more about what's going on in Cleveland Park than the DC Government does. (Well, you probably know already.)
7. You'll get the inside scoop on the most important issues such as Rosedale, Klinge Road and a potential traffic light at 34th and Newark Streets.
6. You need a good plumber now, you'll find a good plumber now.
5. Being on the list won't increase your property tax assessment.
4. Being on the list may give you ways to lower your property tax assessment.
3. You don't have to wait until the newspaper is delivered at 4:30am to find out what's been happening.
2. Somebody will be able to answer your question: "What was that helicopter doing over Cleveland Park at 12:30am?"

And the number 1 reason to join the Cleveland Park Email List:

1. You have an excuse to stay indoors at your computer when it's 95° and humid outside.

To subscribe, send a blank email to cleveland-park-subscribe@yahoogroups.com or visit www.cleveland-park.com. You can modify your subscription at any time. The Cleveland Park email list is calorie and spam-free.

